BY-LAWS of the
POLISH NATIONAL ALLIANCE OF THE
UNITED STATES OF NORTH AMERICA

Revised and Reenacted
At The 49th Regular Convention
Held from August 29th to August 31st, 2023, inclusive in Rosemont, Illinois

MISSION STATEMENT

When Poland lost its independence in the Eighteenth Century, it became subjected to a threefold bondage by its invaders and its people were divested of their rights to life and liberty. After several unsuccessful uprisings, many proud and patriotic Poles, preferring exile to bondage, sought refuge in a new, free land – the United States - and settling here found freedom and equal rights of citizenship.

A group of these valiant exiles founded the Polish National Alliance of the United States of North America ("PNA") in Philadelphia in 1880. PNA continues to provide financial security to our members and promotes our Polish-American heritage and culture.

Today, we, Representatives of the 49th Convention of the Polish National Alliance of the United States of North America, assembled in Rosemont, Illinois on the 29th through the 31st day of August, 2023, as faithful guardians of the ideals which those founders bequeathed to us as a sacred heritage and guided by over one hundred forty three (143) years of experience, hereby adopt, ratify and declare these By-Laws to be binding, equally, upon all of the members of the Polish National Alliance.
ARTICLE I
Organization

Section 1 - Definition of terms as used in these By-Laws.
(a) The term "Convention" shall mean the supreme legislative, judicial and governing body.

(b) The term "Board of Directors" shall mean the executive and managing body.

(c) The term "Alliance" when used to identify funds, money, property, assets or liabilities shall refer and relate to such funds, money, property, assets or liabilities of the Alliance, which are under the control of the Board of Directors as distinguished and differentiated from the funds, money, property, assets or liabilities belonging to other constituent bodies of the Alliance.

(d) The term "Chair" shall mean the Chairperson/Chair of the Board of Directors.

(e) The term "Vice Chairperson" shall mean the Vice Chairperson/Vice Chair of the Board of Directors.

(f) The term "Council" shall mean a subordinate body composed of lodges allocated thereto.

(g) The term "Lodge" shall mean a subordinate body of the Alliance.

(h) The term "Delegate" shall mean a Beneficial Premium Paying Member of the Alliance who is elected by a lodge or a council as its representative to another subordinate body of the Alliance.
(i) The term "Representative" shall mean a member of the Alliance, who is elected by the Electoral Assembly of a Council to act as the Representative of the membership within the Council to the Convention of the Alliance.

j) The masculine gender includes the feminine; the singular includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular.

(k) The term "Benefit Certificate" shall mean all life insurance certificates and annuities.

(l) The term "Beneficial Member" shall mean a beneficial premium paying member of the Alliance who has in force any life insurance certificate and/or annuity product. In the case of an annuity product, such member must maintain at least a $10,000.00 balance in said annuity or make at least a $500.00 annual contribution during the prior four (4) consecutive calendar years.

(m) The term "Director" shall mean individuals elected to the Board of Directors.

Section 2 - Name - The name of this fraternal benefit society shall be Polish National Alliance of the United States of North America, hereinafter referred to as "Alliance". However, the term "Alliance" may likewise have the limited meaning given to it in Section 1(c) hereof.

Section 3 - Home Office - The Home Office of the Alliance shall be located in the State of Illinois.

Section 4 - Nature of Organization - The Alliance is a fraternal benefit society organized on the 14th day of February, 1880 A.D., and incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois.
Section 5 - Objectives - The objectives of the Alliance are to promote the cultural, social and economic advancement of its members, to foster fraternalism and patriotism among them, to provide, in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, death, disability, accident, annuity and other benefits to its members and their beneficiaries; and, to provide benefits on the lives of their children as authorized by its By-Laws.

Section 6 - Territory - The Alliance may conduct its business in all the States and territories of the United States and other countries.
ARTICLE II
Membership and Benefit Certificates

Section 7 - Qualifications Required of Adult Applicants for Membership
Applicants for membership in the Alliance must be persons not less than sixteen (16) years of age who believe in the ideals and purposes of the Alliance.

Section 8 - Admission to Membership
Applications for membership must be made on forms approved by the Board of Directors and processed in accordance with written guidelines adopted by the Board of Directors. Every applicant elected to membership must be inducted in accordance with the Ritual of the Alliance. An applicant who is a member of a subversive organization, having for its object the overthrow of the United States government by force and violence, shall not qualify for acceptance as a member of the Alliance.

Section 9 - Rescission or Reconsideration of Rejection of an Applicant
The rescission or reconsideration of an individual for membership in a lodge shall be in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Directors.

Section 10 - Classes of Members
There shall be two (2) classes of membership of the Alliance namely; Member and Juvenile Member. A Member shall mean any individual who has an Alliance benefit certificate in force including individuals holding paid-up certificates, individuals on any non-forfeiture option and holders of all annuities. A Juvenile Member is an individual who is insured by the Alliance and under the age of sixteen (16) years of age.
Section 11 - Beneficial Members
Beneficial Members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Alliance, provided, however, that a member's right to participate in the governmental processes of the Alliance shall be exercised only in one (1) lodge. A member holding benefit certificates in more than one (1) lodge shall elect in writing to which lodge the member intends to exercise their rights. If the member fails to make such election within a reasonable time, the Secretary of the Alliance is authorized to designate the lodge in which the member shall exercise their rights. Such election shall remain in full force and effect until changed by the member in writing, with notice served in a like manner as in instances of an original election. A change of election shall not become effective until one (1) year after the date of the receipt of said notice by the Secretary of the Alliance.

Section 12 - Transfers of Lodge Membership
Transfers of lodge membership shall be approved by the National Secretary.

Section 13 - Insured Juveniles
A child less than sixteen (16) years of age on whose life a benefit certificate is in force is a Juvenile Member of the Alliance and shall have no voice in the management of the Alliance.

Unless otherwise stated in the application, all rights to exercise every option, benefit, or privilege regarding Certificates issued on insured juveniles are vested in the applicant. After the insured juvenile attains the age of sixteen (16), the insured shall become a Beneficial Member of the Alliance and shall be entitled to all of the rights and privileges of an adult insured member. The ownership of the certificate shall remain with the applicant unless the applicant elects otherwise. If the applicant elects to transfer ownership to the insured juvenile at the age of sixteen (16) years or older, the insured juvenile shall be entitled to all of the rights and privileges of an adult insured member and shall be subject to all the conditions and obligations set forth for adult insured members.

In the event that the owner of a certificate issued on an insured juvenile dies, ownership shall be transferred as the owner directs. In the event the owner fails to provide a direction as to ownership, the ownership shall pass to the insured juvenile unless the insured juvenile is younger than sixteen (16) years of age, in which case the ownership shall be transferred to the parent or guardian of the insured juvenile.

Section 14 - Benefits, Premium Rates and Reserves

The Board of Directors shall determine the kinds, amounts and combinations of benefits to be offered by the Alliance and the ages at which those benefits will be issued; shall approve the premium rates for and the reserve basis of those benefits and the form and content of benefit certificates and applications therefore, and shall approve the underwriting rules governing the acceptance or rejection of applications for benefit certificates.

Section 15 - Entire Contract

The certificate of membership and insurance, together with any riders or endorsements attached to it, the application, the declaration of insurability (if any) signed by the applicant, the articles of incorporation and bylaws and all amendments to them, constitute the entire contract when it is issued. Any subsequent changes to the articles of incorporation or bylaws shall be binding upon the applicant benefit member, certificate owner, beneficiaries and other persons affected, and shall govern and control in all respects, except that no changes shall destroy or diminish benefits promised in the certificate when it was issued.

Section 16 - Benefit Certificates on Children

The Board of Directors shall provide for the issuance of benefit certificates on the lives of children less than sixteen (16) years of age, who, except for their ages, possess the qualifications required of applicants for membership in the Alliance. The application for such benefit certificate must be made by an adult person, must name as beneficiary a person on whom the child is dependent for support and must be consented to in writing by a natural or adoptive parent of the child if such a parent is living.

Section 17 - Power to Waive Certain Reinstatement Requirements
The Board of Directors shall adopt rules and regulations for reinstatement of an insurance policy.

Section 18 - Maintenance of Solvency
If the Alliance's reserves become impaired, the Board of Directors may impose an assessment against each benefit certificate on an equitable basis. Such assessment shall not be a personal liability but may be paid in cash or allowed to stand against the benefit certificate as an indebtedness bearing compound interest at an effective rate not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum, or in lieu of either, the owner may consent to a proportionate reduction in benefits.

Section 19 - Valuation
Annually, the Board of Directors shall cause a valuation to be made of all benefit certificates in force on December 31st. Such valuations shall be made by competent actuaries with the reserve basis on which such benefit certificates were issued or such higher reserve basis as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 20 - Distribution of Surplus Annually the Board of Directors shall determine if there is divisible surplus in the insurance fund, and if such is found, make available to owners of benefit certificates such portion if any, thereof, as each, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors is equitably entitled.

Section 21 - No Waiver of By-Laws
No person in whatever capacity shall have power to waive any provision of these By-Laws.

Section 22 - Assignment
A benefit certificate may be assigned for any reason by the certificate owner.

The Alliance shall assume no responsibility for the validity or effect of any assignment and shall not be charged with notice of any assignment unless in writing and filed at the Home Office and acknowledged as accepted by the Home Office.

Section 23 - Beneficiaries
A beneficiary or beneficiaries shall be designated in each application for a benefit certificate. No beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in the proceeds of any benefit certificate until such certificate has become due and payable in conformity with the provisions of the insurance contract.

If any beneficiary shall die before the insured or otherwise be disqualified by law from receiving any of the proceeds of a benefit certificate, any proceeds of the benefit certificate that would have been payable to such beneficiary, if living or if not so disqualified, shall be payable equally to the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries unless otherwise provided in the benefit certificate.

If no qualified beneficiary is living at the insured's death, then the benefit shall be paid to insured's estate.
Section 24 - Change of Beneficiary
The owner of a benefit certificate may change the beneficiary by mailing or delivering written notice thereof to the Alliance, on a form satisfactory to the Alliance, at its Home Office during the lifetime of the insured. Such change shall take effect once the request is received. The change of beneficiary will take effect as of the date it was signed, but without prejudice to the Alliance on account of any payment made or other action taken or permitted by the Alliance before said notice was received and recorded in the Home Office. The Alliance shall have the right to require the benefit certificate for endorsement of any change of beneficiary.

Section 25 - Proofs in Support of Claims
Proofs required by the Alliance to be submitted in support of any claim for a benefit shall be on forms satisfactory to the Alliance. Such proofs shall be executed under oath and shall contain such information, supporting affidavits and evidence as the Board of Directors may require.

Section 26 - Limitation of Actions
No court action shall be brought on any claim arising out of any benefit certificate or rider issued by the Alliance unless such action is brought within the applicable statute of limitations.

Section 27 - Funeral Expenses
If no provision is made by the beneficiary or relative of the deceased member for payment of funeral expenses, the Alliance may pay such funeral expenses to the person or persons entitled thereto, provided, however, that the payment for funeral expenses shall not exceed the sum provided by statute in the States where the Alliance is licensed to do business. The amount paid under these By-Laws shall be deducted from the proceeds of the certificate.
ARTICLE III
Investments

Section 28 - Investment of Funds
Funds of the Alliance shall be invested in securities and loans on improved real estate authorized by the State of Illinois and the Investment Committee consisting of the President, as chair of the committee, the National Secretary, the Treasurer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Alliance.

Section 29 - Legality -Restrictions
No investment shall be made in any security whatsoever, until the statutory conformity and propriety of such investment shall be recommended as qualified by the Investment Advisor, engaged for these purposes by the Board of Directors.
ARTICLE IV
Convention

Section 30 - Membership
(a) The Convention is the supreme legislative and governing body of the Alliance.

(b) Unless elected as Representatives, the Chair, Vice-Chair, the President, the National Secretary, the Treasurer of the Alliance, the members of the Board of Directors, and, if applicable, the General Counsel, the Chief Financial Officer, and the Director of Insurance Sales, shall be entitled to a seat and voice in the Convention, but shall not be entitled to vote.

Section 31 - Representatives
Each Council shall be entitled to one (1) Representative for every five hundred (500) Beneficial Members or a major fraction of that number, in good standing, as established by the records of the Secretary of the Alliance as of the 31st day of December, preceding the regular Convention; including members holding only Paid-Up certificates or certificates of Extended Insurance. If a Council on such date shall have less than two hundred fifty-one (251) Beneficial Members, the Board of Directors shall order it joined, for purposes of representation in the Convention to a Council in the same District.

Section 32 – Honorary Representatives
The title of Lifetime Honorary Representative may be bestowed by a Convention upon an individual. A nomination for Honorary Representative shall be made by a Representative in writing submitted to the National Secretary at least thirty (30) days prior to the Convention.
Such title shall be awarded upon an individual after nomination by a Representative and approval of a majority of the Representatives at such convention.

An Honorary Representative shall have the right to attend and address any Convention with all expenses paid by the Alliance. Such Honorary Representative shall not have a right to make a motion or vote unless such an individual is a duly elected Representative.

Section 33 - Qualifications of Representatives - Term of Office

A Representative to the Convention shall be at the time of election a Beneficial Member of the Alliance uninterruptedy, for at least two (2) years, preceding the date of election to office, who is a citizen of the United States, and shall not be a sales agent of any other fraternal insurance organization or association transacting life insurance business. Each Representative elected, as provided in these By-Laws, shall hold office for the full term between regular Conventions.

Where the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors determines that a person elected as a Representative to the Convention does not meet the specific qualifications of this section to be elected in accordance with the By-Laws, the Executive Committee shall direct the National Secretary to notify the Lodge Secretary that the individual in question failed to meet the required qualifications for Representative.

Section 34 - Mileage and Per Diem

Representatives to the Convention, the Officers named in Section 30 and employees of the Alliance designated by the Board of Directors to perform services thereat shall receive such per diem for the time in actual attendance at a regular or Special Convention, and the time in travel at each regular or Special Convention, as determined by a proper resolution approved by the Board of Directors prior to March 31st of the year in which the Convention shall be held. In addition thereto, they shall be reimbursed either for actual coach fare and connecting vehicle transportation if utilizing air, train or bus for each way of travel to and from the place of the Convention or direct mileage, if travel by personal automobile of less than 500 miles radius, at a rate to be determined and fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 35 - Regular Convention
Regular meetings of the Convention shall be held every four (4) years, at the time and place to be approved by the Board of Directors, provided that the Convention shall begin no later than the 15th day of September.

Section 36 - Special Convention
In instances of emergency or exigency, wherein the existence and the welfare of the affairs of the Alliance may stand in jeopardy, the Chair may, upon the approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board of Directors, call a Special Convention. Such a Special Convention must be called by the Chair, whenever two-thirds (2/3) of the lodges in good standing or a majority of the councilis in good standing, of the Alliance shall present a written request for such Special Convention. Each Special Convention shall consist of all members to the preceding regular Convention, and in the event of the death, disqualification, or inability to act of a member, then an alternate, as appointed by their lodge, shall serve. A Special Convention can be held electronically. A Special Convention may not be called if the Special Convention were to be called for a date less than six (6) months prior to the next regular Convention.

Section 37 - Notice of Call of Special Convention
Written notice of the call for a Special Convention shall be submitted by the National Secretary of the Alliance to each member of the preceding regular Convention, at the last known address and/or the last known e-mail address, at least thirty (30) days before such Special Convention. The notice shall state the time, the place of the Convention and the subject matter to be considered. At said Convention, no subject matter other than that contained in the notice shall be considered. In the event of the inability or refusal to act by the National Secretary of the Alliance, the Board of Directors shall designate a person to mail the required notices.

Section 38 - Quorum
A majority of the members of the Convention shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a regular or Special Convention, but a lesser number may recess from time to time until a quorum is present.

Section 39 - Pre-Convention Committees

Section 50 - Nominations for Elective Officers of the Alliance
Nominations for elective Officers of the Alliance shall be made in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by and on forms approved by the Board of Directors. The forms and rules must be adopted by the Board of Directors no later than December 31, of the year prior to the National Quadrennial Convention.

Section 51 - Election and Installation
The officers named in Section 48 shall be elected at each regular Convention and shall be installed by the Chairperson of the Convention, in accordance with the ceremony prescribed in the Ritual. In the intervals between Conventions, the installation shall be made by the Presiding Officer, Chair of the Board of Directors, or the President, provided, that in instances where officers are required to furnish bond, they shall not enter upon the performance of the duties of said office until their bonds shall have been approved and accepted.

Section 52 - Term of Office - Report - Presence at the Convention
Unless otherwise provided, all of the elective Officers of the Alliance shall be elected for the next ensuing quadrennial term, commencing the later of the 1st day of January after the adjournment of the Convention, or upon receipt of all regulatory approvals and shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The appointed Officers of the Alliance shall serve for such time as the appointing authority may determine. All Officers shall make a written report of their official activities to the Convention. Members of the Board of Directors, shall be present at the sessions of the Convention and give all information respecting their office as the Convention may request.

Elected Directors of the Board shall be limited to two (2) consecutive terms and this shall not preclude a Director to run for that office again after a lapse of four (4) years.

Section 53 - Compensation
1. The Board of Directors shall receive such compensation as recommended by the Budget Committee and approved by the Convention.

2. The Chair, Vice Chair, President, National Secretary, and Treasurer shall receive the compensation as recommended by the Budget Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 54 - Vacancies
Vacancies caused by any reason in the elected offices of the Alliance shall be filled as provided in Section 60 (11).

Section 55 - Bonds of Officers
The Board of Directors shall approve the bond for such Officers, in such amount and in such manner as it shall determine. Failure to file such bond with the Secretary, by any Officer required to give bond, within thirty (30) days after the time of the fixing of such bond, or within such time extensions thereof granted by the Board of Directors, shall create a vacancy in his office, which shall be filled as provided in these By-Laws.
ARTICLE VII
Board of Directors

Section 56 - Composition
The Board of Directors of the Alliance shall consist of the five (5) elected Directors, the Chair of the Board, the Vice Chair of the Board, the President, National Secretary and Treasurer.

Section 57 - Executive Committee of the Board of Directors
The President, National Secretary and Treasurer of the Alliance shall constitute an Executive Committee, which, in the interim between the meetings of the Board of Directors of the Alliance shall exercise all of the authority and powers of the Board of Directors, as the orderly conduct of the affairs of the Alliance may require.

Section 58 - Meetings - Quorum
All members of the Board of Directors of the Alliance shall hold and participate in regular meetings once every quarter and such special meetings, as may be called by the Chair or the President of the Alliance. A majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Alliance shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

In lieu of a special meeting, any business may be transacted by the Board of Directors by correspondence, telecommunication or virtually. A written confirmation of any action taken shall be submitted to the Board of Directors.

Section 59 - Compensation of Board of Directors
Each Director shall receive such allowance for attendance at meetings and for special services in the interest of the Alliance.
Section 60 - Powers of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall be the executive body of the Alliance and shall supervise and have effective oversight of all of the affairs and business of the Alliance. Such powers shall include for particularization but not in limitation of the above, the power to:

(1) Provide for the creation of various committees to exercise certain necessary functions of the Board of Directors in the interim between the meetings of said Board of Directors.

(2) Approve charters to councils and lodges and revoke or suspend the same for cause, without resort to disciplinary proceedings.

(3) Exercise supervision and control over districts, councils, and lodges, and to direct various bodies of the Alliance to institute disciplinary proceedings in instances involving embezzlement or conversion of funds belonging to the Alliance.

No lodge officer shall act as sales agent in another fraternal benefit society, association or corporation and selling life insurance or annuity business.

Section 83 – Lodge Operations
Each Lodge shall operate in accordance with rules and regulations approved by the Board of Directors.
ARTICLE XVI
Disciplinary Provisions

Section 84 - Offenses for Which Member May be Disciplined

The following are declared to be the offenses against the Alliance for the commission of which a member may be disciplined by, removal from office, fine, reprimand, suspension or expulsion:

(1) The willful and deliberate disregard of the duties and obligations imposed by the enactments of the Convention, these By-Laws or the obligatory rules, regulations and directives of any duly constituted authority within the Alliance.

(2) Embezzlement, or willful withholding or conversion of any funds or other property of the Alliance, or of any of its subordinate bodies, after demand is made therefore by proper authority.

(3) Willfully making untruthful answers, which affect either the acceptance of the risk, or the hazard assumed by the Alliance, to any questions in their application for membership and medical examination, or in any application for increase of benefits or for reinstatement, or in a declaration of insurability, if used in lieu of a medical examination.

(4) The perpetration of, or attempt to perpetrate, any fraud upon the Alliance, its constituent bodies, or any of the Officers thereof.

(5) Institution of any litigation against the Alliance or its constituent bodies, without having first exhausted all remedies available under these By-Laws.

(6) Willful insubordination or disregard of the directives of a superior authority of the Alliance.
(7) The willful and malicious uttering, writing, or publishing of any false statement relative to any member, Officer or constituent body of the Alliance concerning the affairs of the Alliance, which tends to bring the member, Officer or constituent body of the Alliance into disrepute or contempt, or the effect of which is detrimental to the interests, prestige and good repute of the Alliance or the aiding or abetting thereof.

(8) Conviction in any court of law of a criminal offense of the grade of felony, which judgment of conviction has been final under the laws of the jurisdiction in which such judgment was rendered, excluding cases where the person convicted had his civil rights restored.

Section 85 - Offenses for which Councils and Lodges may be Disciplined

The commission of the following offenses by a council or lodge may be disciplined by the Board of Directors by suspension or revocation of the charter.

(1) Neglect or refusal to conform to these By-Laws, enactments of the Convention or the rules, regulations, requirements and directives made by proper authority.

(2) Willful insubordination or contempt of a superior authority within the Alliance.

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall prevent the suspension or dissolution of a lodge without charges, as provided in these By-Laws.

Section 86 - Complaints

All complaints against any member, Officer, council or lodge shall be in writing, signed by a member, Officer or body of the Alliance in good standing. All charges against a council or lodge may be signed by the National Secretary of the Alliance, or in the alternative, by three (3) members, or a body of the Alliance in good standing. Upon receipt, the National Secretary shall forward a copy of the complaint within fourteen (14) days to the member, Officer or body named in the complaint.

Section 87 - Judicial Bodies
(1) If the complaint is fraternal by nature, as opposed to financial, the matter shall be adjudicated under the provision of this section, otherwise all financial disputes involving insurance products shall be resolved using the provisions of Section 114.

(2) An Ad Hoc Committee of the Board of Directors shall act as a Judicial Body for all complaints filed against an individual member, Lodge Officers, Lodge, Council Officers, and Council and all elected officers of the Alliance.

(3) The full Board of Directors shall be the judicial body in which all complaints shall be filed against the councils, the Officers thereof and all the elective Officers of the Alliance.

(4) Any judicial bodies named above may deputize a member or members of the Alliance to act as a trial tribunal for the purpose of investigating the facts, conducting the hearings and presenting to the judicial body his or their findings and appropriate recommendations in said cause.

Section 88 - Rules of Procedure
The Board of Directors shall prescribe rules of disciplinary procedure. Such rules shall provide for:

(1) Notice to the accused of the time and place of hearing and any continuance thereof.
(2) Opportunity for the accused to present evidence.

Section 89 - Decisions of Judicial Bodies
The judicial body may:

(1) Find the complaint unfounded and may dismiss the same, or

(2) Find the accused guilty of all or some of the charges of the complaint, and may fine the accused at their discretion or

(3) Reprimand the accused privately/publicly at a meeting, or

(4) Suspend the accused for a definite or indefinite time, or revoke the charter of or dissolve the accused, or

(5) Remove the accused from office or expel the accused from membership in the Alliance.

(6) Every decision of a judicial body shall be made by vote of the majority of all the members present at said meeting, except that a decision imposing the penalty of removal or suspension from office, expulsion, revocation of charter or dissolution shall be by vote of three-fourths (3/4) of all members present.

Section 90 - Effect of Suspension or Expulsion
Where an accused has been suspended or expelled by action of judicial body, such member shall be deprived of all rights and privileges of every nature whatsoever, provided, however, that the privilege of maintaining the benefit certificate in force by continuing payment of the required premium rates and such payments as may be payable under the benefit certificate shall not be revoked and, provided further, that a member so suspended or expelled shall be notified by the National Secretary of the Alliance in writing of the above privilege.
Section 91 - Effect of Decision of a Judicial Body - Appeal from Decisions of Judicial Bodies

Decisions of all judicial bodies shall take effect directly upon rendition thereof and shall be in full force and effect until modified or reversed on appeal. Any party aggrieved by the decision of a judicial body, shall have a right to appeal to the Board of Directors. The appeal shall be made in accordance with the rules and regulations of disciplinary procedure. The hearing before the Board of Directors shall be based upon the record in the judicial body from which the appeal is taken, and no additional evidence shall be presented to the Board of Directors in such matters. In the absence of an appeal within the time specified in the rules and regulations of disciplinary procedure, the decision of the judicial body shall be final.

All decisions of the Board of Directors on appeals shall be by a vote of the majority of the members present at the meeting except decisions imposing the penalty of removal from office, expulsion, suspension, revocation of charter, or dissolution, which shall be by vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the members of the Board of Directors present at the meeting. In the event of a vote by correspondence, the decision of the Board of Directors must be by majority of all the members of the Board of Directors, except that in the case of removal from office, expulsion, suspension, revocation of charter, or dissolution, the decision shall be by vote of three-fourths (3/4) of all the members of the Board of Directors.

The decision of the Board of Directors may affirm, modify in whole or in part, reverse and remand for further proceedings or reverse the decision of the judicial body from which the appeal is taken.
Section 92 - Appeals from Decisions of the Judicial Body of the Board of Directors, and from Decisions of the Board of Directors in Appellate Matters.

In all cases wherein the Board of Directors hears disciplinary matters in the first instance as a judicial body, the procedure before it shall be the same as prescribed for other judicial bodies.

All decisions of the judicial body of the Board of Directors and all decisions of the Board of Directors in appellate matters may be appealed by any person, officer or body who may deem aggrieved thereby to the next regular Convention by petition directed to the Office of the General Counsel.

Section 93 – Mandatory Arbitration.

(1) Any claim of a member or beneficiary concerning the rights, obligations, or benefits of an insurance certificate or annuity, or of any nature against the Officers of the Alliance, employees, or agents shall be resolved as follows:

(a) No legal proceeding shall be filed against any of the above until the mediation and binding arbitration herein provided for has been exhausted and then only if applicable law does not recognize the arbitration to be final and binding on the parties.

(b) If a certificate owner or a beneficiary has or claims to have a dispute with the Alliance or any of its officers, employees, or agents, such person shall contact the Secretary, who shall arrange for the matter to be reviewed by the appropriate official of the Alliance.

(c) If the matter is not resolved at this level, either the certificate owner, beneficiary, or the Alliance may submit the matter for arbitration to be administered by and in accordance with the applicable rules of the American Arbitration Association or other mutually acceptable organization.
(d) The Arbitrators may award any damages or other relief allowed by the applicable law, excluding attorney fees, unless required by the applicable law. As to the matter in dispute, unless prohibited by the applicable law, the decision of the Arbitrators shall be final and binding subject to the right to appeal such decision as provided by applicable law.
ARTICLE XVII
Amendments to the By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation of the Alliance

Section 94 - Amendments to the By-Laws
The By-Laws of the Alliance may be amended by a majority vote of all Representatives present and qualified to vote at a regular Convention, or a special Convention, called for that purpose. Each member, Lodge, Council, or the Board of Directors, may submit a proposed amendment, in writing. In the event the proposed amendment is submitted by a Lodge, Council or the Board of Directors, it must be signed by its respective Officers. All proposed amendments shall be sent to the National Secretary of the Alliance not later than sixty (60) days before the Convention for delivery to the Committee on Laws and By-Laws.

Section 95 - Adoption - When Effective
No amendment shall be considered or adopted at any Convention, unless it has been presented as provided for in the preceding section. All amendments shall take effect the later of thirty (30) days after approval by the Illinois Department of Insurance or the publication in the Zgoda.

Section 96 - Amendments to Articles of Incorporation
The Articles of Incorporation of the Alliance may be amended at any session of the Convention by adoption, by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and entitled to vote, of a resolution setting forth either the amendments proposed, or the Articles of Incorporation as they will read if the resolution is adopted, and shall become effective upon compliance with the provisions of the laws of the State of Illinois.
Section 97 - Amendment by Referendum
To meet changing statutes or rules and regulations of the Insurance Departments of various States wherein the Alliance is authorized to transact business, or when such action is deemed to be of serious importance to the welfare of the Alliance, the Board of Directors may order a proposed amendment to these By-Laws be submitted to a referendum vote of all members of the last regular Quadrennial Convention of the Alliance.

The amendment, to be acted upon by referendum vote of the representative of the last regular National Quadrennial Convention, must state the date the same is to be effective if adopted and must be submitted to such representatives by mail and accompanied by an official ballot at any time prior to six (6) months immediately preceding the date when the next regular National Quadrennial Convention of the Alliance is scheduled to convene. Such ballot to be counted as valid shall be returned to the National Secretary of the Alliance within thirty (30) days from the date of its mailing.

The affirmative vote of the majority of the members of the regular Quadrennial Convention immediately preceding shall constitute adoption of the amendment.

Section 98 - Indemnification of Officers and Directors
The Alliance may, insofar as permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless each officer or director of the Alliance and/or any subsidiary of the Alliance now or hereafter serving the Alliance, or any other corporation, joint venture, or other enterprise which said officer or director now or hereafter serves as an officer or director at the direction of the Alliance.

The Alliance may maintain insurance on such directors and officers against liability for acts or omissions in the performance of their duties as determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.
Section 99 - Robert's Rules of Order
In the absence of any rules or regulations governing any particular phase of the deliberations of any constituent body of the Alliance, the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall apply.

Section 100 - Repealing Clause
Any provision contained in the By-Laws, inconsistent with the amendments passed at the 49th Convention, are hereby repealed.

I, do hereby certify that I am the duly elected and qualified National Secretary of the POLISH NATIONAL ALLIANCE OF THE UNITED STATES OF NORTH AMERICA, a fraternal benefit society, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, and by virtue of said office the custodian and keeper of the official records of said Society, and of the corporate seal thereof, and that the above and foregoing copy to which this certification is attached is a full, accurate and complete copy of the original By-Laws of the Polish National Alliance of the United States of North America, a fraternal benefit society as aforesaid, in the custody and possession of the undersigned, as revised at the regular Convention of the said Polish National Alliance of the United States of North America, held in Rosemont, Illinois from August 29th to August 31st, 2023 inclusive, and that the same are currently in full binding force and effect.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the official seal of said Society this 20th day of September, A.D. 2023
